Case No. CR05-265-RSM-JPD

DETENTION ORDER
Material Witness

In re Material Witness:

YOUNG HEE HWANG

Offense charged: Material Witness

Date of Detention Hearing: July 21, 2005

The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f) and 3144, and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons hereafter set forth, finds that detention is necessary to adequately secure the testimony of the material witness, and to prevent a failure of justice.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

(1) Ms. Hwang was arrested on a material witness warrant in the matter of United States v. Michael Williams, et al., CR05-0265-RSM, upon a finding that it was impracticable to 01 secure her presence by subpoena. She made her initial appearance in this Court on July 15, 2005.

02 (2) The United States has moved to detain Ms. Hwang pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3144
03 for a reasonable period until her deposition can be taken pursuant to the Federal Rules of 04 Criminal Procedure.

05 (3) There is an immigration detainer lodged against the witness.

06 (4) The material witness is a native and citizen of South Korea.

07 (5) There is no information available regarding the material witness's personal
08 history, residence, family ties, or ties to the Western District of Washington, income, financial 09 assets or liabilities, physical or mental health, or controlled substance use if any.

10 (6) The material witness is viewed as a risk of nonappearance based on her unknown
11 background information and lack of information about any ties to this community or to the 12 Western District of Washington.

13 (7) The Court finds that further detention is necessary to prevent a failure of justice.
14 The material witness will be detained until her testimony can adequately be secured.

15 It is therefore ORDERED:

16 (1) The material witness shall be detained pending the taking of her testimony and
17 committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction
18 facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving
19 sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

20 (2) The material witness shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private
21 consultation with counsel;

22 (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the
23 Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which material
24 witness is confined shall deliver the material witness to a United States Marshal
25 for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding or for 26 providing testimony in connection with a case pending in this court; and

(4) The Clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for the material witness, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States Pretrial Services Officer.

DATED this 22nd day of July, 2005.

JAMES P. DONOHUE
United States Magistrate Judge
